

WESTERLY

The Jewish drive started Monday morning and will continue the remainder of the week. The funds donated are to help the thousands of starving people in Russia. There are about 20 Jewish families in Westerly and all have contributed liberally to the cause. It is the hope that all nationalities and creeds will help in this work.

Edward Charles O'Donnell, a former resident of this town, died Friday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John O'Donnell, of 211 Broadway, Providence, after illness with pneumonia for the past few days. The funeral was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's church on Broadway, Providence. He is survived by his parents, his wife, a son, Edward C. Jr., a brother, John M. O'Donnell, and two sisters, Mrs. James Noonan and Miss Melinda O'Donnell. The news of Mr. O'Donnell's death came as a surprise to local friends here, as the fact of his illness was not generally known. He is remembered by many local sports followers as a baseball player of considerable ability, having been at one time a member of the Quahog High school team and a star on the White Rock nine of the Rhode Island-Connecticut league.

Mrs. Florence Spencer Dyer, who recently returned from Armenia, gave a very interesting talk on the people of that land at Elgin opera house Sunday evening. There was orchestral music, also singing by Mrs. Jessie Davison, Rev.

O'Brien and was witnessed by relatives and friends of the couple. The attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Manuel Lewis Medos, of Stonington. The bride wore a gown of white silk, wore a veil and carried white chrysanthemums. Following the ceremony, breakfast was served at the home of the newlyweds on Railroad avenue. There were many gifts to the bride. Both have been employed at the mill of the American Velvet Co.

BALTIC

The Baltic Wanderers basketball team paid a visit to Fort Wright Saturday and met defeat. Fort Wright had a heavier team. The boys had a good time and received the best of treatment. They have no kick coming as the Fort Wright team will pay a visit to Baltic at a later date and the Wanderers will try and even up the score. The water was rough on the way over and some of the boys suffered from sea sickness. The following made the trip: Dudley Burr, Jimmie Burr, Walter Coady, Adele Simeau, Snoddy Hines, Theodore Swanson, Robert Robertaille, John Firth, Joe Rendou and Harry Collings. The Wanderers are playing in Thompson on Wednesday night and Friday night they are trying to get the Army-Navy club to come to Baltic.

In the pool tournament started Friday night some of the winners are Wilcox, Maurice, father and son, and H. Collins. As the tournament is just started the boys who do not belong to club have a chance to join.

Ragner Swanson is leaving the Wanderers after this week and Robert Hines has been signed up. Manager Collins and Captain Coady have to be on the jump to keep the club at the top. The Wanderers have won 10 games and lost 2.

E. J. Cleveland, chairman of the drive in this district, presided.

Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Chapman of Avonville have returned from a month's trip to San Francisco, Los Angeles, Santa Barbara and other cities on the Pacific coast. Their trip included a visit to the Grand Canyon. Mr. and Mrs. Chapman attended the national grange meeting at Portland, Ore., as delegates from Rhode Island state grange, of which Mr. Chapman is grand master.

STAFFORD BAPTIST CHURCH

ON SUNDAY OBSERVANCE

(Special to The Bulletin.)

Stafford Springs, Dec. 12.—Rev. F. W. Tholen, the pastor of the Baptist church presented a statement of belief regarding the Lord's Day which was accepted by the congregation on Sunday morning as follows:

In view of the increasing desecration of the Lord's day, "the first day of the week," we, the members and friends of the Baptist church at Stafford, Connecticut, do hereby solemnly and publicly declare our belief and conviction regarding the Lord's day, viz:

"We believe that, according to the Holy Scripture, Divine wisdom and providence have ordained that man shall have one day in seven wherein he may rest from his accustomed labors, so that he may regain his physical strength, and remain efficient for future service till another seventh day has been reached.

"We believe that on this day, according to Divine commandment, man should abstain from all work, except works of necessity and mercy.

"We believe that according to Divine revelation it is the will of the Creator that on the Lord's day man should not indulge in sports, games and amusements that merely gratify the natural man and should observe the Commandment to keep it holy.

"We believe that according to the Holy Scripture the first Christians came together in a designated place for prayer and worship on the first day of the week, commonly called the Lord's day or Sunday, and that we as their successors ought to do likewise in the interest of

CUTICURA HEALS PIMPLES ON FACE

And Back, Itched and Burned, Sleep Affected.

"For months I was troubled with itching, burning pimples on my face and back. The pimples festered and when I scratched them they scaled over. I was scattered all over my face and looked so badly that I was ashamed to go anywhere. They affected my sleep and made me very nervous.

"I heard of Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a free sample which afforded great relief. I bought more, and after using about one box of Ointment, with the Soap, I was completely healed." (Signed) Miss Gladys Abel, R. F. D. 4, Colchester, Conn., April 6, 1921.

home and nation. On this day the Lord Jesus Christ rose from the grave and in his honor and in accordance to Divine command we should assemble ourselves together in union with other Christians to meditate on God's Holy Word and seek His Divine favor, and help us to fulfill our obligations to God and man.

"We believe that the Almighty God, the Giver of this command, has blessed the people and nation who in love and fear obeyed it and have kept the Lord's day holy, whereas people who disregard it and desecrated it have suffered moral and physical collapse.

"We call upon our fellowmen who do not hold our views, and do not believe as we do to respect our convictions and to allow us to worship on the Lord's day without molestation or annoyance, and do invite them to join us in seeking spiritual wisdom, grace and strength."

"Mr. Tholen believes that the future life, peace and welfare of the nation, as well as of the individual, depend very largely upon the observance of this day. He does not believe that the Jewish Sabbath is obligatory to the Christian; but there are millions in our so-called Christian America who observe neither the Sabbath nor the Sunday and who spend the day that was set apart for man's spiritual and physical benefit to their own undoing and disaster.

Little Rock, Ark., Dec. 12.—James Howard, convict who killed Tom Slaughter, notorious outlaw in a communication to Governor McKee today believed the state from any and all obligations of paying him the $500 reward offered for the apprehension and killing of Slaughter. Howard declared that when he shot and killed the bandit he did not know that any reward had been offered.

CONSIDERING TAKING A FEDERAL CENSUS IN 1925

Washington, Dec. 12.—Because of a "considerable dissatisfaction" with the result of the count in the census taken last January, the House Census Committee is considering legislation providing for another enumeration of the population of the United States in 1925 or some other year prior to the next decennial census. Secretary Hoover says today in that portion of his annual report dealing with the activities of the Census Bureau.

"This proposed legislation has my approval," Mr. Hoover says, adding that "it has frequently been contended that the distribution of the population as shown by the reports of the Fourteenth Census is abnormal; that prior to that enumeration there was a great movement from rural to urban districts which, since the enumeration, has been neutralized in large measure by a reverse movement; and that this shifting of the population affected the totals for certain states, thus influencing the apportionment of representatives in Congress."

HELD IN CONNECTION WITH $2,000,000 MAIL ROBBERY

Jersey City, N. J., Dec. 12.—The first suspect arrested in connection with New York's $2,000,000 mail robbery October 24 today was held in $50,000 bail for a hearing next Monday. In default of bail, he was sent to the Essex County Jail in Newark.

The suspect was Frank Calabrese, a Hoboken taxi driver and hackman, whose arrest on suspicion more than a month ago did not become known until the country authorities pressed federal agents for prosecution, with the implied warning that the suspect might be turned loose otherwise.

Consequently, Calabrese this afternoon was held before United States Commissioner Queen. The complaint, made by postal inspector Joseph S. Vick of New York, charged Calabrese with stealing four pouches of registered mail from a mail truck being driven along lower Broadway by Frank Haverbeck. According to the postal authorities, Haverbeck identified the suspect in the lineup after he had put on a pair of glasses. Calabrese protests his innocence and asserts he can establish an alibi.

Postal inspectors have been working incessantly on the case, which so aroused Postmaster General Hays that he started an investigation that later led to marines being detailed to guard the mails.

Calabrese was picked up in Jersey City on November 2 by the police on suspicion. He had just arrived from Newark in a motor car with another man whom he said was a taxi passenger. Believing that his machine laded with the description of the motor car occupied by the mail bandits, the police got in touch with the postal authorities.

The postal authorities sought to keep the arrest secret, lest other trails be lost. It was learned that they had received an anonymous letter purporting to connect Calabrese with the crime and that they had grilled two women of his acquaintance. These women later were exonerated of any connection with the crime.

Haverbeck, it was learned, had failed several times to identify the suspect, until he had put on glasses.

PURSUIT AND PUNISHMENT OF 100,000 DRAFT EVADERS

Washington, Dec. 12.—Energetic pursuit and punishment of the more than 100,000 men who evaded the draft during his World War is urgently recommended by Major General Harris, Adjutant General of the Army, in his report made public today by the Secretary of War. To bring those evaders to trial, he recommends that Congress appropriate $250,000 to pay rewards of $50 for each draft deserter delivered to the military authorities.

"It is imperative," he declares, "that the Government exhibit the greatest possible energy in pursuing these men and in punishing all who are found guilty. If the government permit these deserters to escape the punishment provided for their offense, consequences of the gravest import will certainly ensue.

"In action of this sort would tend to set a premium on evasion of military service, with the inevitable result that should another national emergency arise and another selective draft be put in operation, the number of men attempting to evade the performance of military duty will mount to a figure so large as to imperil the Nation through interfering very seriously with the rapid building-up of an emergency army."

General Harris says the publication of the "slacker lists" by the newspapers "proved highly useful for the purpose of straightening out the records of a number of non-willful deserters whose names were included therein, despite all the care and effort expended in an attempt to include none but those of willful deserters."

Suffered Two Years with Asthma—Restored to Health by Wincarnis

Mrs. Jennie Hamblet, 14 Chandler St. Nashua, N. H. could not sleep nor eat.

Lungs filled with mucus—could not take deep breath, kept growing weaker and weaker—Now well.

Edward Lassar, Inc. 400 West 23rd Street New York City

Dear Sir:

You have no idea what a joy it is to me to tell you about my own case. I began suffering from asthma about two years ago. The attacks soon became so frequent and severe that it was almost impossible for me to lie down in comfort or to get any sleep at all in bed. There was so much thick and sticky mucus in my lungs that I could not take a deep breath. My attacks were made so much worse by eating that I simply could not consume enough food to nourish my body.

In time, I lost so much flesh and strength that I was scarcely able to do any work at all. I tried all sorts of medicines, but continued to grow weaker and more and more run-down and utterly miserable. Finally, my druggist suggested that I try Wincarnis, knowing that nothing else had done me any good. I began to feel wonderfully improved before I had finished taking the first bottle. I have taken five bottles and really feel like a new person. I now sleep soundly, am refreshed when I wake up, eat any and every sort of food, have an abundance of energy and very seldom have a return of my old attacks.

I wish every sufferer from asthma or extreme weakness would try Wincarnis, for it certainly is the most wonderful of all tonics and it restores one's strength so quickly. You may publish this letter of appreciation of what Wincarnis has done for me if you like.

Yours very truly

(Signed) Mrs. Jennie Hamblet

Wincarnis is sold in Norwich by National Drug Store, Main and Shetucket Streets and all first class druggists.
